

DEDICATION

In this world in which we live, the student life is influenced by the faculty around us. For that reason we, the class of 1959, would like to dedicate this Centralian to Miss Lorine Grosz and Mr. John Mulligan. We feel that these teachers have greatly enriched our lives and the world in which we live.

MISS LORINE K. GROSZ

The characteristics of a busy, understanding woman can be found in our German and Senior English teacher, Miss Lorine Grosz. She graduated from Oberlin college and attended Breadloaf School of English in Vermont. At Central she was once advisor for the Drama Club, and is now advisor to the National Honor Society and the German Club. Her helpful guidance and sincerity will long be appreciated by all who know her.

MR. JOHN E. MULLIGAN

The gentle, white-haired man, whom you see in our halls is known to all as our Central High News advisor, Mr. John Mulligan. Mr. Mulligan's activities have extended from working on the copy desk at the Minneapolis Journal to serving in World War I. He has been at Central since 1920 during which time he acted as advisor to the Centralian for several years. Mr. Mulligan will long be honored by many prominent men, in the field of journalism, because of his book "Experience in Journalism". Central will always remember him as being a kind man and a wonderful teacher.
