

...OUR WORLD IN '59...

The halls of Central again become alive as the new year begins . . . Seniors search for old friends, Juniors new classes, and Sophomores just search . . . the football season gets its kick-off at the preview . . . new team, new cheerleaders, new cheers and traditional pep fests . . . talent is discovered with the first News Program . . . Miss Lobdell eliminates gum from Modern Problems . . . the best Homecoming yet . . . floats, Queen Irene, talent, VICTORY, dreamy dancing . . . football season complete as we beat West . . . "Run Sadie, grab your man!" and the Senior Party is a success . . . Mr. Suter's "quiet" Physics labs . . . Senior Dinner . . . into basketball with the preview . . . ahhhh, vacation, to eat our fill of Thanksgiving goodies, and sleep . . . class hams are discovered and "The Importance of Being Earnest" is a hit . . . basketball keeps us cheering and the team winning . . . vacation again to celebrate Christmas . . . back to the books . . . "Vote for me and I promise you . . . "senior officers are elected . . . the sophomore girls' basketball team keep on trying some of Lundeen's tricks while shooting baskets . . . Sno-Week: Queen Margie, King John; our first bonfire, our girls' hockey team, our Sno-ball . . . we whipped Roosevelt, much to our delight . . . Mr. Johnson's shorthand classes . . . the second News Program and second semester news papers . . . "May I have a picture of you?" finds the seniors exchanging pictures . . . Comedy Concert '59, the P.T.S.A. talent show was great . . . Mr. Koch's long assignments . . . wrestling match for new choir robes . . . we ate all night at the Junior and Sophomore dinners . . . dances dotted our date docket . . . Triettes International Fair . . . Teen Board Representatives have yummy style shows . . . ticket selling and practice, practice, practice, and another good band concert . . . we entertained future Pioneers at the talent show at Bryant . . . Guilty or innocent? You may decide in "The case of Humanity v.s. Pontius Pilate" . . . late nights, lots of reading and rewriting help produce our Gale Essays . . . Miss Grosz's book reports must be handed in . . . Mr. Hawkers little orations . . . we welcome spring with Easter Vacation . . . Music fills the air as the Choir presents its annual spring concert . . . we all look dazed with our cases of spring fever . . . "Beyond the Blue Horizon" Senior Banquet . . . Centralian room buzzes with last minute deadlines . . . Preparations for the Senior Prom begin . . . we dance all night . . . Senior Program, the last big program of the year . . . Sunday June 7, Senior Dedication . . . Commencement comes much too soon, and it is time so say good-bye to our world at Central.